NEW DESTINATIONS FEATURED IN 2006 SUPERSTAR VIRGO ITINERARIES

Star Cruises, the Leading Cruise Line in Asia –Pacific, has included exciting new destinations for SuperStar Virgo's 2006 itineraries. In addition to the ship's current itineraries, 2006 will see the addition of Redang Island in Malaysia and Hua Hin in Thailand in six special and new cruise itineraries.

The new destinations and itineraries continues Star Cruises' pioneering work in the South-East Asia cruise industry which it has dominated for more than ten years.

In 2006, SuperStar Virgo maintains its popular three and two-night cruises, departing weekly from Singapore to Penang, Malaysia and Phuket, Thailand as well as the longer five-night cruises calling at Penang, Phuket and the Malaysian destinations of Malacca and Port Klang (Kuala Lumpur).

“The introduction of new and varied cruise itineraries is part of our efforts to provide a wider choice for the holiday maker in discovering the many attractive destinations that the region has to offer,” said Mr. Chong Chee-Tut, Star Cruises Chief Operating Officer.

“We are also confident that these new options will appeal greatly to our repeat cruisers as we continually look at ways to provide the best cruise experiences to a discerning and growing market,” he added.

The first of three new itineraries to be introduced in 2006 will feature three, two and five-night cruises to Phuket, Langkawi and Redang Island off Malaysia's east coast. These cruises will depart Singapore on alternate Sundays from April through September 2006.
