Passengers disembarking for shore tours were greeted with traditional flower garlands. Special traditional welcomes have also been planned courtesy of tourism bodies of Malaysia and Thailand to greet guests upon arrival in Phuket and Penang.

In conjunction with her maiden arrival, a special plaque exchange ceremony was held onboard witnessed by senior officials from the Krabi Governor’s office, Krabi Provincial Administrative Organisation, Immigration, Tourism Association, members of the media and senior Star Cruises officers. Following a lunch, the guests went on a tour of SuperStar Gemini for a first-hand look at the ship.

SuperStar Gemini’s itineraries are a combination of 7 and 21-night cruises to destinations such as Port Klang (Kuala Lumpur), Langkawi, Penang, Kota Kinabalu and Kuching in Malaysia, Krabi, Phuket, Ko Samui and Bangkok in Thailand, Sihanoukville in the Khmer Republic (formerly Cambodia), Ho Chi Minh City, Nha Trang, Halong Bay and Danang in Vietnam.

Thailand remains a very popular destination with Star Cruises’ passengers and in line with efforts to offer more interesting itineraries, Star Cruises has added Krabi, another exotic destination to SuperStar Gemini’s itinerary apart from Phuket.

The introduction of longer itineraries have been designed to provide a more relaxing cruise holiday to cater to more sophisticated cruise passengers on a ship that has proved to be very popular with the Australasian and European markets.

“The active fly-cruise market into Singapore will now see an added flow of inbound tourists with the basing of a second Star Cruises ship here as we intensify our international sales and marketing efforts to promote these cruises”, said Mr.Chong Chee-Tut , Star Cruises Chief Operating Officer.

“Apart from the many itineraries on offer, cruisers now have a choice of a cruise holiday on the larger SuperStar Virgo or a more intimate destination-intensive cruise experience on SuperStar Gemini“, he added.

Guests can expect a new and exciting onboard experience in terms of dining and recreation facilities with the ship having undergone a two week dry-dock exercise in preparation for the new itineraries. A varied entertainment programme with new classical and contemporary acts is also among the highlights specially arranged.

The entertainment line-up will also see the return of the extremely popular award winning Colin Kerr as Cruise Director.
