The Charming SuperStar Libra in India

The Campout @ Sea & Educational Programme is a fun and exciting programme just for junior cruisers and pre-teens that feature themes that run on the Sunday and Wednesday cruises while international showtime includes the colourful and lively 'Sorpresa' and 'Wonderland' productions.

Sorpresa, which is Italian for 'surprise' attempts to do just that with a concept that revolves around the five key elements of metal, wood, water, fire and earth, all cleverly married together through an interpretation of song, dance and acrobatics. Sorpresa is indeed a fantastic experience in theatrics with brilliant choreography, artistic costuming, mystical concepts, stunning laser and audio visual effects.

Wonderland is another production show that provides audiences with a multitude of present day entertainment experiences in the mould of what the circus did for us generations ago featuring internationally acclaimed dancers from Brazil and multi-award winning acrobats from China.

Based on the good-versus-evil genre, Wonderland is about the adventures of a young heroine set in a fantasy world of Magical Mirrors, Witches, Fairies, Black Crows, Goblins and Angel-Warriors.

There is string of endless activities to enjoy aboard SuperStar Libra for everyone!
