

Grand Fleetwide 'Fiesta' Celebration on the high seas

06 September 2007 - Asia's favourite cruise line will once again offer exciting fleetwide programmes that are bound to leave each cruiser with a rich and unforgettable experience. 'The Leading Cruise Line in Asia-Pacific', Star Cruises, will be rolling out the grand celebration line-up 'Fiesta de Virgo', 'Fiesta De Gemini', 'Fiesta de Aquarius' and 'Fiesta de Libra' in the coming months of October and November.

A superb line-up of programmes for families, couples, individuals, teenagers, children and even corporate groups which includes learning the hot Latin dance, enjoying the Red Hot Salsa Party, grooving away all night at the Moonlight Madness Disco, have a splashing time with the Kids Pool Party with mom and dad and win wonderful prizes and other activities such as Face Painting, Family Karaoke and Balloon Sculpting.

Imagine being your own stand-up comedian where you go 'live' with your very own audience, go Mexican with the Mexican Tequila Fiesta complete with nachos, taco and Mexican hats, do the limbo at the Luau party, Hawaiian style, have a whale of a time with the Ugly Betty Psychedelic Fashion Party and Laugh Line karaoke contest where worst is best!

Further extremely exciting themes that promises loads of fun include having a chance to be identified as Mr Bond, the Gender Bender Night & Battle of Sexes, Family Amazing Race at Sea, pool fun and wet games as well as game shows like Family Feud and the Price is Right. Also try your hand at being an actor in games of charades with our vibrant Cruise Staff and have a gala time aboard with Fun Fair activities and parties!

The grand Fiesta at Sea has something for everyone whilst cruisers continue to enjoy the sumptuous choice of world-class cuisine, great entertainment and exciting recreation options while sailing to some of the most enchanting destinations in the region. Come and experience a fantastic time with Asia's best!
