Get Ready for a Fun-tastic Family Time onboard SuperStar Gemini in June 2014

Singapore 10 June, 2014 – Star Cruises, the leading cruise line in Asia Pacific, welcomes passengers of all ages for a fun-tastic time with the entire family all throughout the month of June, onboard SuperStar Gemini. For those celebrating the school holidays, Star Cruises offers the perfect holiday get-away onboard the 13–storey cruise-liner, SuperStar Gemini, with loads of fun and exciting onboard activities for the kids, teens and the entire family.

As part of the fun-tastic celebration, Star Cruises welcomes kids to the ultimate adventure onboard SuperStar Gemini. Star Cruises is pleased to introduce a very special 2 in 1 onboard program for kids called “The Junior Camper-Astronomer Program”. Kids can sign-up, enjoy and experience the best of both worlds that includes learning about outdoor camping activities, as well as exploring and understanding more about the stars and the universe. With the camper activities, kids will have fun learning and making new friends as they try out new activities such as Teepee-making, knot-making, can & string telephone-making, flag signal games, story-telling or simply enjoying a smoke BBQ with marshmallows. Kids can also further engage in various Junior Astronomer activities with the likes of Star Gazing, Star-Navigation, learning about astronomy, identifying constellations and more. No matter what your interest maybe, be it space science, arts, the outdoors or a little of everything – “The Junior Camper-Astronomer Program” is bound to capture your kids imagination and interest all together. It’s the perfect school holiday experience.

In addition, both kids and teens can also take part in the “Mini Gemini Carnival-Kids Activity” and choose from a variety of onboard role-playing activities across various exciting divisions that are available on the ship. Participants will have a first-of-its-kind interactive edutainment experience at sea. They can transcend the boundaries of the grown up world and play their part in the community, while experiencing tricks-of-the-trade of their of their future dream careers on a cruise. Each will be awarded a certificate from the Ship Captain onboard upon completion of the activities. Other interesting school holiday activities include the ASEAN Quiz Bee competition where teens can test and challenge their spelling skills. At the same time, families can also try out local Asian traditional games like the “Congkak Challenge” and “Sepak Takraw”.

That’s not all. With football mania sweeping the globe, all eyes are set on Rio, Brazil for what is expected to be the greatest World Cup of all time. Families and friends, young and old, especially footy fans are all invited to the al fresco poolside, Oceana Restaurant and Stardust Lounge onboard SuperStar Gemini to catch the LIVE telecast matches. Besides that, have fun also trying out our football-related activities that includes Penalty Shoot Outs, Dribbling games, X-Box Football Challenge and many more. Who knows? You may walk away with some attractive prizes. Also, passengers can choose to participate and learn the popular, lively and rhythmical Brazilian dance, or simply relax and savour some of the exotic and delicious Brazilian cuisines prepared by our award-winning chefs onboard. As you can see, it’s a month filled with fun-tastic activities for the entire family.

With exciting holiday itineraries and new Asian destinations, Star Cruises is also pleased to introduce the “Star Cruises – Great Singapore Sail” Special with a “Cruise at SGD $21” promotion. 2nd passenger pays for only SGD $21 for any 2-Night or 3-Night cruise onboard SuperStar Gemini when sharing the same cabin with a full-paying partner.
